Public Works and Sports Development Minister Aadhav Arjuna chaired a high-level review meeting at the Secretariat on Wednesday to discuss preparations for the 2026 Karthigai Deepam festival at the Arunachaleswarar Temple in Tiruvannamalai. Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowments Minister C Ramesh was present at the meeting, which reviewed arrangements for the smooth conduct of the annual festival. Chief Secretary M Saikumar and senior government officials participated in the discussions on coordination among departments and preparations for the festival.

Over 1.61 lakh personnel to conduct Census 2027 in TN

Chennai, Oct 15: More than 1.61 lakh personnel, including 1,41,083 enumerators and 20,467 supervisors, will be deployed across Tamil Nadu for the Population Enumeration phase of Census 2027. The exercise will cover all 38 districts, 25 municipal corporations, 651 towns and 15,437 villages, spread across approximately 1.43 lakh enumeration blocks. Officials said special attention would be given to newly developed residential areas, high-rise apartment complexes, slum settlements, remote villages and rapidly expanding urban localities to ensure that no household or individual is left out. District Collectors and Municipal Commissioners have been instructed to identify new streets, residential layouts and buildings that have come up since the previous house-listing exercise and ensure their inclusion in the census. Enumerators and supervisors will undergo training in data collection and verification procedures. Digital applications and monitoring systems will be used to support the exercise, while field verification will be undertaken to identify omissions and ensure accuracy. The Revenue, Education, Police, Health and Women and Child Development departments, along with local bodies, will coordinate to facilitate enumeration in rural and urban areas. Residents will also have the option of submitting household information through an online Self-Enumeration facility. Officials said the dates for Self-Enumeration would be notified in January 2027, along with details of the designated portal and procedures. The public has been urged to cooperate with census personnel and provide complete and accurate information in the prescribed questionnaire to ensure that every individual is counted. State Nodal Officer for Census and Additional Chief Secretary and Commissioner of Revenue Administration B Chandramohan, Director of Census Operations

M Sundaresh Babu, Director of Social Security Schemes B Gayathri Krishnan and other senior officials were involved in the preparatory discussions. District Collectors, who serve as Principal Census Officers, and Municipal Corporation Commissioners will oversee arrangements in their respective jurisdictions.

Kanchipuram, Oct 15: Members registered with the Denotified Communities Welfare Board are eligible for financial assistance of up to Rs. 1.25 lakh under various welfare schemes, including accident compensation, education, marriage, maternity and old-age pension benefits, Collector T. Sneha said. The welfare schemes, implemented since 2008, provide accident compen-

Rs. 5.11 cr welfare aid distributed

Ranipet, Oct 15: As many as 257 people received welfare assistance worth Rs. 5.11 crore under various government schemes during a public outreach camp organised at Mambakkam village in Kalavai taluk on Wednesday.

District Revenue Officer N Saravanan distributed the assistance at the camp held at Aram Marriage Hall on Arani Road in the presence of Arcot MLA S M Sukumar. Officials from various departments participated in the camp and explained the welfare schemes available to the public, including financial assistance and benefits offered through the Revenue Department, Social Security Scheme Department, Department for the Welfare of Differently Aabled Persons, Public Health Department, Agriculture Department, Horticulture Department, Mahalir Thittam and Food Supplies and Consumer Protection Department. The camp aimed to create awareness about government welfare programmes and help eligible residents access benefits through different departments.

Earlier, Saravanan inspected exhibition stalls set up by government departments and reviewed information displayed on welfare schemes and public services.

Revenue Divisional Officer Raji, Special Deputy Collector (Social Security Scheme) Geetha Lakshmi, District Supply Officer Panneerselvam, Tahsildar Venkatesan and other officials attended the programme.

920 NSS volunteers honoured for election duty

Chennai, Oct 15: As many as 920 National Service Scheme (NSS) volunteers and 16 NSS Programme Officers from colleges affiliated to the University of Madras were presented appreciation certificates on Wednesday for assisting voters, including persons with disabilities, during the previous election. District Election Officer and Greater Chennai Corporation Commissioner G S Sameeran distributed the certificates at a meeting held at Ripon Building to strengthen Electoral Literacy Clubs (ELCs) in educational institutions and universities across Chennai.

The meeting, organised in accordance with Election Commission of India guidelines, brought together Electoral Literacy Club Coordinators, students and NSS volunteers to discuss ways to improve voter awareness and encourage youth participation in the democratic process.

Addressing the students, Sameeran explained the importance of constitutional rights, electoral procedures, voter registration and the role of young voters in strengthening democracy. He also highlighted the process of enrolling new voters online and urged students to create awareness about voter registration and electoral participation.

Officials made a presentation prepared by the Election Commission, explaining the legal framework governing elections, the role of volunteers in electoral activities and guidelines for effectively carrying out voter awareness programmes.

Additional District Election Officer and Joint Commissioner (Education) K Karpagam, District Revenue Officer (Elections) N Booshnadevi, Electoral Literacy Club Coordinator and Electoral Registration Officer E Muruganandam, Education Officer J Vasanthi, State NSS Officer P N Gunanidhi and students participated in the meeting.

Welfare benefits for DNC board members sation of up to Rs. 1.25 lakh, Rs. 30,000 for natural death and Rs. 5,000 towards funeral expenses. Educational assistance ranges from Rs. 1,000 to Rs 8,000, while marriage assistance of Rs. 3,000 or Rs. 5,000 is provided based on eligibility. Other benefits include maternity assistance of Rs.6,000, reimbursement of up to Rs. 750 for spectacles and a monthly old-age pension of Rs.

1,200. People belonging to Denotified Communities aged between 18 and below 60 years, who are engaged in unorganised sector employment, agricultural labour or other manual work, are eligible to register with the board. One eligible member from each family can enrol.

To simplify registration, renewal and applications for welfare assistance, the government has launched the portal www.dncwb.tn.gov.in.

The Collector urged existing members to submit copies of their membership identity cards and Aadhaar cards, along with mobile phone numbers and other personal details, to the District Backward Classes and Minorities Welfare Officer at the Collectorate. The details will be uploaded to the portal to facilitate access to welfare benefits.
